THE palmer | knight COMPANY

Integrity for clients. Discipline for investing.

The Palmer Knight Company is an investment advisory boutique offering a select group of individuals and businesses financial guidance and money management on a fee for service basis. We believe that because we are not a transaction funded company, potential conflicts of interest should be minimized between us and our clients, allowing for greater focus to be placed on their goals and objectives. Further, the company's investment philosophy is based on market truths our clients may enjoy the assurance of time tested wealth management.

The Palmer Knight Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a Registered Investment Advisorunder the Investment Act of 1940.
