Platte County, Missouri and the Risks of Complex Debt Portfolios

Platte County is not the first example where a general obligation bondholder has been affected by a lower-standing credit event. A thorough understanding of the debt structures in the local government sector can serve to mitigate or alleviate these derivative impacts within a fixed income credit portfolio.

Increasing Investment Opportunities in the Middle East and North Africa

Driven by powerful demographic forces, global technological changes, and the long-term potential decline in oil demand, parts of the Middle East and North Africa region are undergoing monumental changes not seen for generations. We recently visited the region and have updated views on several countries, including Egypt, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates. Based on our assessment, we believe the region is ripe for potential investments by our strategy.

Behavioral Finance and Multi-Factor Investing

In this brief commentary, the Advantage Equity team discusses the importance of maintaining an awareness of behavioral biases in investing and how that awareness influences one of the core tenets of their philosophy and process - namely, the discipline instilled by their multi-factor model.

Important Information about Account Opening Requirements

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we are required by Federal law to ask for your name, street address, date of birth (for natural persons) and other information as required to identify you. This may include a request or requests for confirmatory information such as presentation of your driver's license and/or other document(s).
