Don't just save the money but also plan a happy retirement

by B. Hanes

Wes presents many of the concepts that he espouses on his MONEY MATTERS radio show on WSB in Atlanta. The main ideas include not only saving your money and properly utilizing it when you reach retirement but also considering what happy retirees are doing and how their lives are set up. It's one thing to have money when you retire but a completely different thing to thrive and enjoy your retirement.
