About Clocktower

We partner with phenomenal entrepreneurs who have the vision and drive to reinvent financial services, investing from the seed stage to late stage. We support leading companies across all sectors of financial services, including lending, payments, personal finance, and capital markets. Our distinctive approach to fintech venture capital is crafted around a curated network of industry experts and investors.

Launched in 2015, Clocktower Technology Ventures is the technology investing affiliate of Clocktower Group, a global macro investment firm based in San Francisco, CA and invests worldwide.
