

Home

About SEAF KASI Agriventures

Small Enterprise Assistance Funds (SEAF) manages a Small & Medium Enterprise (SME) investment fund, providing debt and equity to growing businesses and producers in Tanzania's agricultural sector. SEAF supports our investees and other emerging business leaders across Tanzania through our Center for Entrepreneurship and Executive Development. Our unique programs serve entrepreneurs in the country's agribusiness

@SEAFGlobal

SEAF

Thank you to @ChathamHouse for an incredible finance forum! Our own Jan Cherim spoke on the scale and nature of the...

<https://t.co/0WYNqgUNMC>

6 days ago

sector, which supports an estimated 80% of Tanzanians. SEAF is currently focusing its on: animal feed producers and distributors; export oriented fruit, vegetable, and/or spice processors; equipment leasing finance providers; and non-bank financial institutions serving small, growing agribusinesses.

SEAF

Learn about how #investing in #entrepreneurs in underserved #markets can deliver #impact. Sign up for @SEAF's monthl...
<https://t.co/XdoTn8WN2z>
6 days ago

Who We Are

SEAF has worked in emerging markets for over 25 years, and now we're taking our expertise to Sub-Saharan Africa.

Meet the Team ›

SEAF's Beginnings ›

Our Partners ›

What We Do

Our focus is to work with entrepreneurs in the ag-processing industry to ultimately increase productivity and support their expansion into new markets and regions.

Our Investments ›

Our Technical Assistance ›

Where We Invest

We work with some of the best agribusinesses in Tanzania - check them out!

Our Portfolio Companies ›

Get Updates from Us

Email Address *

SUBMIT

