

Inverdale Capital Management is a diversified asset manager focused on alternative investments in both public and private markets. We believe that an investment discipline centered on process, a team comprised of intellectually curious people and an atmosphere that encourages humility and transparency will ultimately lead to superior results.

