

The promise of the fiduciary standard.

At Horizon Wealth Management, we're an independent Registered Investment Advisory (RIA) firm (<http://www.horizonwealth.biz/p/ria-what-in-a-name>), often referred to as a fiduciary. As such, we're held to the industry's highest levels of fiduciary duty to our clients.

And yet a fiduciary is only as good as the processes in place behind it that strive to help you successfully manage and grow your wealth. Horizon distinguishes itself with a sophisticated, institutional-grade investment approach (<http://www.horizonwealth.biz/p/investment-process>), and an exclusive level of client support (<http://www.horizonwealth.biz/p/client-support>) suited to the complex needs of affluent individuals and families.
