"I used to use and recommend another hosting service...but they were pricey, for a 5x a week podcast I would pay close to $100 monthly. I moved to Podbean and get the same service, am treated better, have sponsor connection help, and unlimited hosting for $9 monthly."

--Kamala Chambers, Thriving Launch

The interface was miles above other hosts. As I completed the transfer to Podbean I was continually impressed by the innovation, the reliable metrics, the ease of use and most importantly the many user guides and live chat service that managed to avoid the pitfalls normally associated with these services, and be a truly useful tool. I could not be happier with the switch."

--Zach Mummert,

-- Are You Morbid ?

"I decided to host my second show on Podbean, because of the great price. This was the best podcasting decision I've made. Podbean has been consistently improving and investing in their platform. Beyond that, and much more important to me, they invest in their shows. Their level of service goes beyond the norm, the expectation, and even the hopes. A month ago, I moved over my original pod to Podbean. They have helped me grow and sustain my shows so much."
