PIRAEUS LEADERSHIP

Seán D.S. Sebastian is a Piraeus Group founding partner. As founding partner of Birchmere Ventures, he has made multiple successful investments resulting in IPOs and M&A exits, among them FreeMarkets (FMKT, acquired by Ariba), Neoliner (acquired by Cadence Design Systems), CyOptics (acquired by Avago), Safeguard Interactive (acquired by Storage Technologies), and Knova Software (SVCW).

Seán has over 25 years of experience in technology commercialization, management consulting, systems integration, and financial services. He previously founded The Telford Group, a technology consulting firm to financial services clients. At General Electric Information Services, Seán directed advanced technology commercialization activities. At American Management Systems, he consulted on applied artificial intelligence systems for various public and private sector clients. Seán also served on active duty in the U.S. Air Force.

Seán holds a BS in Mechanical Engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and an MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He is a dual US/UK citizen.

Matteo A. Gruelle is a Piraeus Group founding partner. As founding partner of Cavallino Capital Holdings, he has led numerous private equity investments and engagements including Fraser Claymore, DT Gruelle, Madison Acquisitions, LorNat, EkoPak, and Bag Tech Global UAE. He is also Birchmere Ventures' Director of International Relations, with a focus on Middle East (GCC) market development.

Matteo has over 15 years of experience and active investments in cold chain packaging, international shipping logistics, real estate and industrial services. Matteo was previously with CTSS (Tokyo Japan), a global logistics and supply chain company specializing in facilitating trade between Japanese companies and NGOs with the developing world with a concentration in conflict areas. He began his career in banking and finance at Merrill Lynch.

Matteo attended Duquesne University with a focus in finance, Far East studies, and European history. He is a dual US/Italy citizen.
