

Act instead of react—and seek the advantage.

All is well with the industry's traditional ways of managing money - until it isn't. At Mission Funds, we look to take you beyond the tired confines of "same old" investment management strategies - and instead, bring you an agility and expertise that seeks to set a new standard, and lets you know you're not treading water when wisdom dictates action.

Wins Above Replacement (<https://themissionfunds.com/Insights/ArtMID/453/ArticleID/19/Wins-Above-Replacement>)

Wins above replacement (WAR) is a baseball metric that describes a player's value in terms of how many more wins he brought to his team than a replacement-level player at his position would have. It is a measure of the effectiveness of an individual within the team and a statistical attempt to quantify if he is worth what he is being paid. Ranking players by WAR might seem harsh, but a company's resources are finite; it has to deploy its capital strategically and responsibly.

No Free Lunch (<https://themiissionfunds.com/Insights/ArtMID/453/ArticleID/17/No-Free-Lunch>)

Auour Investments (<https://themiissionfunds.com/Home/PID/454/authorid/2/AuthorName/Auour-Investments>) / Wednesday, April 10, 2019 0 271

The global equity markets provide the closest thing we have to a free lunch. With little effort, they provide individuals with the means of growing their money over time and above the rate of inflation, thereby providing a savings method that not only preserves purchasing power but increases it.
