Tech Portfolio

Lewis & Clark Ventures believes that the “Between the Coasts” region’s strong fundamentals – our world-class research institutions, abundance of STEM graduates, bulk of the Fortune 500, and good old-fashioned grit – present an incredible opportunity for venture investing. But we also recognize that a sober examination of the strengths and weaknesses of the region is necessary to empower sustainable innovation. To that end, we’re proud to present our 2019 Tech Between the Coasts Report.
