Money Rotation Continues to be Bullish: Market Commentary from Cabana's CEO – November 11, 2019

This past week we saw major U.S. indices tread water at their all-time highs. Underneath the hood, money is rotating from low beta assets such as bonds, real estate, utilities and dividend payers, into cyclical assets like technology, transportation, energy and industrials. Financials continue to benefit from rising long-term interest rates and a steepening of the... Read the full article.
