Community Affairs and Corporate Responsibility

Today's philanthropic landscape is evolving more rapidly than ever before, and the need for strong corporate citizens has never been greater. At UBS, we understand this and are committed to establishing strong partnerships and initiatives to tackle the opportunities ahead. It starts with a simple belief that every dollar and volunteer hour matters. With that in mind, we have a clear vision for the future – to help build stronger communities where everyone has the opportunity to fulfill their potential and achieve financial independence.

UBS Community Affairs & Corporate Responsibility, Americas is dedicated to providing under-resourced, high-potential individuals with access, advice and education to help develop more enterprising communities. This is achieved through our three signature philanthropic initiatives:
