

Welcome

We have taken the opportunity in the design of this website to distinguish between City of London Investment Group plc (CLIG) and City of London Investment Management Company Limited (CLIM). In this context, at a very high level, CLIG relates to our Shareholders while CLIM relates to current and prospective clients.

Please click on the relevant box below in the knowledge that certain aspects of our work relate to both entities. The main intention behind organizing our website in this way is to save you time in terms of its navigation.