High Pointe Capital Management, LLC is an independent, employee-owned investment manager based in Chicago. The firm is known for its pioneering investment approach for systematically incorporating intangible assets like patents, brands, network effect, management effectiveness, shareholder-orientation and employee engagement.

A key ingredient of the firm's investment process is its holistic integration of Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) factors. High Pointe has researched the effectiveness of various ESG factors to find the best way to incorporate them without sacrificing alpha
