

*Investment
portfolios built on tradition and dedication*

Larry Levy founded Ike Capital in 2004 to offer a traditional approach to portfolio management — pursuing a time-tested investment philosophy with the highest level of dedicated attention. Larry brings more than three decades of diverse experience in the financial markets as well as a clear understanding of what drives the investment needs and goals of wealthy families.

By serving a select number of client families and overseeing a concentrated number of portfolio positions, Larry is able to provide active oversight.
