At WP Global Partners, we produce superior value backing enterprises that form the backbone of U.S. employment and economic growth. Our private market investment vehicles leverage a hybrid strategy of primary fund commitments, proactive direct investments, and selective secondary investments. Each portfolio is constructed with the following objectives:

3

Generate a risk-adjusted return that moves the needle

Deliver consistent performance across market cycles

Achieve distribution momentum early in the fund's life

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, there are well over 500,000 small and medium businesses in the U.S. alone. We leverage our platform of complementary investment solutions to sift the market, aggregate industry knowledge, and foster operating executive relationships. Together, these factors contribute to our ability to capture uncommon – at times customized – value for our partners and clients.
