

Ceredex Value Advisors® is an institutional investment management firm with a strong history in managing value equity portfolios that span the market capitalization spectrum.

INTELLECT + DEXTERITY

We strive to marry the art and science of investing to better serve our clients with consistent financial results through a variety of market conditions.

INFORMATION

We believe that value-style investing is a combination of art and science. The science of investing, measured by academic qualifications and experience, forms the cornerstone of our organization. Art by definition combines vision, skilled craftsmanship, and a comprehensive view of investing as a philosophy.
