This website is published by Atlantis Investment Management (Ireland) Limited ("Atlantis"). The views expressed on this website (the "Site") are not intended as an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any investment or financial instrument. The information contained in the Site does not constitute investment advice and should not be used as the basis of any investment decision. Any investment in an Atlantis product must be based on the information contained in that product's offering materials. References to specific securities are included for the purposes of illustration only and should not be construed as a recommendation to buy or sell these securities. Although Atlantis uses all reasonable skill and care in compiling this information and considers the information to be reliable, no warranty is given as to its accuracy or completeness. The opinions expressed accurately reflect the views of Atlantis as of the date hereof and, while their opinions stated are honestly held, they are not guarantees and should not be relied upon and may be subject to change without notice. The performance of the given financial instruments and financial indices is past performance and is, therefore, not a reliable indicator of future performance. If the performance of the given financial instruments and financial indices is denominated in a currency other than your own, the return may end up being higher or lower because of currency fluctuations. Consequently, the investments discussed may fluctuate in value and investors may get back less than they invested. Past performance is not a guide to future performance and the investment approach and process described may not be suitable for all investors.
