Top 4 Reasons Franchises Are The MVP of Esports

Esports has been called the “wild west” of the sports industry.

What's Behind China's Tech Rise, And What Are The Risks?

Established in 2007, TrueBridge Capital Partners is an alternative asset management firm focused on generating superior returns in the venture capital industry.

TrueBridge identifies and invests in high-performing, access-constrained venture capital opportunities that generate premium value for its partners. The firm is recognized for its data-driven approach to investing in both venture funds and venture-backed companies, as well as for its longstanding partnership with Forbes to produce The Midas List and the Midas List Europe, annual rankings of technology's top investors. TrueBridge was founded in 2007 by Edwin Poston and Mel Williams, who bring over 35 years of experience as successful private equity investors, entrepreneurs, and transaction advisors. The firm currently manages over $2.5 billion in institutional assets and is a registered investment advisory with the Securities & Exchange Commission.
