

"You can't build a reputation on what you are going to do." - Henry Ford

Gimbal Financial is an independent financial services firm, servicing clients with a single vision: honoring families, colleagues, clients, and suppliers through honest, objective financial guidance. Led by Keith Tyner and Jim Pinkston, we consider our firm a family, and since our founding, we have been inviting others along on the journey.

At Gimbal, we take the time to get to know each of our clients to discover their story and to understand what is important to them. By listening carefully to their needs and desires, we help them develop creative strategies and we recommend appropriate financial tools to guide them through life's challenges.

Our advisors have been serving clients for more than 30 years and, together, our team shares more than 100 years of experience serving people in Fishers, the greater Indianapolis area, and across the nation.

We bring these years of industry experience to each client meeting. Our goal is to bring clarity to financial situations so that our clients can focus on what matters most in life to them and pursue their passions. In fact, we like to say we help people chase their passions with their money!

So whether you are changing jobs, planning to retire early, or finally going to hike the Grand Canyon, contact us. We'd love to plan and dream with you.
