Testimonials

Partner, Archer & Greiner, P.C.

Very few people appreciate their insurance professionals until there is a problem which requires resolution of a first party or third party claim. I cannot imagine that there is an insurance professional who comes close to the outstanding manner in which Michael Boggio addresses and responds to his clients' problems and concerns. Michael is analytical, courteous, responsive and empathetic. He makes the process of processing a claim as tolerable as possible and always is looking out for his client's needs.

I always recommend Michael and Chadler Solutions when I have the opportunity as I am quite sure that they not only do a "good" job professionally, but a "great" job. We are lucky to have you on our team.

HR Director, American Securities

"Scott Rappoport and Chadler Solutions have been a tremendous resource on all areas of benefits and compensation. He is very creative and pragmatic and always looks for the right solution that fits the best. His knowledge base is very extensive and frequently he shares best practices and insights that aren't easily available elsewhere. I often recommend Scott to colleagues who have difficult issues or just need to figure out what may be the best source for their solution. Scott is very giving of his time, publishes a great newsletter to share the latest information and has been a huge help. I highly recommend him and his firm!"
