About Us

Why Intellectus?

A Different Approach

Our History

Our name reflects the dynamism of the clients we advise. We work with a network of accomplished clientele—people who make a mark on the world through their intellect.

“Intellect” is defined as the ability to come to the correct conclusion about what is true and to solve problems. We are privileged to work with people who marry their intellect and ingenuity, creating lasting value for themselves, their families, their companies, and their societies.

Intellectus combines “intellect” and “us.” But it’s not just our intellect. It’s the talent and substance, connectivity and passion of the people we advise. When you become a client of Intellectus, you not only gain an advisory team that is utterly focused on you and your needs. You also gain a broad and diversified circle of like-minded peers who share ideas, experiences and opportunities, generating connection and insight across an elite group of innovative leaders.

Our People

“Entrepreneurs know that people drive the difference. The foundation of any successful enterprise is talent. We’re as selective in our team as our clients are in partnering with us.”

Your Lifecycle

We launched Intellectus Partners to address the needs of entrepreneurs and executives. We believe that “wealth management” is too constrictive a term for what we offer. Our slate of services is broad, yet strategic. We are not all things to all people, but we do have an acute understanding of the pivotal issues that entrepreneurs encounter in their personal lifecycle. We recognize that the lines dividing personal and professional wealth are often blurred; we help our clients manage risk in their businesses and in their portfolios. We seek opportunities in the capital markets and in ventures throughout Silicon Valley and beyond.

Your Goals

A properly executed plan starts with an objective- a goal.
Our methods are a goals based methodology.

Plans create discipline
Discipline creates opportunities
Opportunities create value
Value reduces risk
We do not like risk
Risk mitigation supports goal achievement
Goals are what we achieve!

Our Process

We ground our approach in goals-oriented advisory. Client goals shape everything we do—from long-term strategy to day-to-day tactics. But goals are just our starting point or springboard. Attaining those goals is our focus, and that's where our knowledge and experience take flight.

When people speak with us, they quickly perceive that we offer something different. Many advisors pay lip service to customization. For us, it is the lifeblood of what we do. We thrive on the nuances of each client, each family, and each business. We welcome the intricacies and special circumstances that underlie each relationship.

Our process begins with extended conversations. We delve deeply into a client's background, makeup, needs, and desires, so that we can develop a cohesive plan to reach their goals. The more we know, the more effective we are.

Our Partners

"Entrepreneurs recognize that you can't be the best at everything; it's far easier to be the best at one thing. We channel that mindset in selecting our partners, each of whom is outstanding in a particular area. Together, we unleash the force of targeted expertise to advance the needs of our clients."

Jay Casey, Co-Founder and President

Harnessing the Power of Precision

The clients we serve have distinctive and refined needs. They don't want "good enough." They want the best available. Our position as independent advisors allows us to seek out the resources that best fulfill the niche needs of our clients. We don't tether clients to average resources from a broad-based provider. Rather, we winnow out the all-stars within each field, identifying the providers with clear advantages and unifying the whole through precise collaboration.
