Envisioning a company that was able to offer personally tailored, unbiased, independent financial and investment advice, Paul Hughes and Scott Hughes founded Hughes Financial Services, LLC, in 2009.

From the beginning, our mission has been to partner with our clients – individuals and families in or nearing retirement – so we can understand your life situation and provide personalized and objective solutions that work towards achieving your unique financial goals and objectives. We get to know you – listening to your stories and learning what is important to you – and use our experience and knowledge as financial advisers to have a positive impact on your life, your goals and your dreams.

Whether you are looking to retire in a few years or want to start planning for your future now, a good plan starts with a good partnership. We invite you to explore Hughes Financial Services as your potential partner for your financial and investment planning needs.
