

Brigade Capital Management, LP (“Brigade”) is a global investment management firm specializing in credit investment strategies. Founded in 2006, Brigade is led by Donald E. Morgan III, CIO and Managing Partner. Brigade is headquartered in New York with affiliated offices in London and Tokyo.

The firm employs a multi-strategy, multi-asset class investment approach to credit investing, focused on companies with leveraged balance sheets. The investment process Brigade utilizes is fundamentally driven, focusing on asset coverage and free cash flow, with an emphasis on capital preservation. Brigade manages various credit investment strategies, including long/short credit, opportunistic credit, structured credit, distressed debt, traditional high yield and long/short equity, amongst others.

The Brigade investment team possesses deep sector expertise across the leveraged finance markets and has extensive experience in capital restructurings and bankruptcy reorganization. The team invests in predominately below investment grade debt instruments with generally a diversified portfolio construction and the goal of achieving attractive risk adjusted returns.

The firm is committed to industry best practices and is registered with the SEC and its controlled affiliate in London is authorized by the FCA.

New York

399 Park Avenue, Suite 1600
New York, NY 10022
Tel: +212.745.9700
info@brigadecapital.com