Nebrodi Partners is an investment firm focused on private equity fund investing and co-investing in North America and Europe. Nebrodi was formed and is wholly-owned by the members of the former in-house private equity team at a large insurance company, which started and continues to manage the private equity program for the insurance company as a fully independent third party.

Nebrodi is adding a small number of clients who are looking to enhance their private markets investment efforts by working closely with an experienced, successful partner. We believe we provide a distinctive capability that is differentiated in the marketplace, offering our clients unparalleled flexibility and transparency.
