ABOUT ALVAREZ & MARSAL (A&M)

When Tony Alvarez and Bryan Marsal joined forces in 1983, it was with the intent of seamlessly linking operations, performance improvement and value creation to best help companies turn areas of stagnation into growth to achieve sustainable results. This ethos remains at the core of our firm.

We are the consulting firm known for asking tough questions, listening well, digging in and getting our hands dirty. We are fact-driven and action-oriented. We move our clients forward, to where they need to be. We are A&M.
