

An alternative investment manager focusing on distressed and special situations long and short investments

About Caius Capital

Caius Capital is an alternative investment manager founded by António Batista and William Douglas focussing on distressed and special situations long and short investments across the capital structure within a three part framework: identification of Investment Themes, extensive Fundamental Research and careful Risk Management. Caius Capital's investment universe comprises corporate issuers, financial institutions and sovereigns predominantly within the EMEA region.