

Ceres Partners is a specialist investment manager focused exclusively on food and agriculture. Ceres Partners manages two investment vehicles with distinct strategies and investment objectives: Ceres Farms, LLC which invests in U.S. farmland, and Ceres Food & Agriculture Opportunity Fund, which invests growth equity in emerging operating businesses in food and agriculture.

Farmland Properties

Ceres Farms LLC is a co-mingled investment Fund launched in 2007 to identify, acquire and manage productive agricultural land.

Learn More About Farmland Properties

Private Equity

Ceres Food & Agriculture Opportunity Fund (FAO) is a private equity fund vehicle that invests growth equity in diverse emerging operating companies in the food and agriculture sector.

Learn More About FAO Strategies

News

Episode #161: Brandon Zick, “In Row Crops You’re Generating A Lot Of Current Income” (Meb Faber Research)

Jun 19, 2019

Meb Faber hosts Ceres Farms Director Brandon Zick to discuss how row crop farmland can generate current income.

Offshore fish farmer Kampachi receives ASC certification (Intrafish)

Jun 12, 2019

King Kampachi, which is now available on the market, received certification from the Aquaculture Stewardship Council.

Colorado Brewers Guild Brews Symposium Ale for Craft Brewers Conference (Brewbound)

Apr 7, 2019

Proximity Malt collaborated with leading craft breweries in Colorado to serve at the 14,000-attendee Craft Brewers Conference.

Ceres Partners LLC | ©2019 | All Rights Reserved
Site by Corporate Communications, Inc.