■ INVESTMENT JUDGMENT

ORG Portfolio Management LLC ("ORG") is a Registered Investment Adviser that provides global real estate and natural resources portfolio management and consulting services to sophisticated institutional investors. We believe that thoughtful and conservative underwriting, rigorous asset-level research, opportunistic tactical allocations to markets and managers, and portfolio diversification are critical to successful investment performance. ORG specializes in strategy development, discretionary and non-discretionary portfolio management, manager, fund and investment level due diligence, manager selection and monitoring, and performance measurement.

The ORG team of professionals includes a former plan sponsor and consultants with a wide range of real estate experience, including acquisition, development, investment and operations. ORG professionals have more than 100 years of institutional real estate and natural resource experience advising and collaborating with investors in the development and implementation of investment strategy.

ORG's headquarters is in Cleveland, Ohio.
