DISCLAIMERS

This website is for informational purposes only, and is not directed to any person in any jurisdiction where this publication or availability is prohibited. The information on this website does not constitute an offer, recommendation, or solicitation for any products or services. Further, this does not constitute any offer of any fund, investment or pooled investment. Access to and the information contained in this website is restricted to persons who are residents of jurisdictions in which the distribution or use of such information herein is permitted. Please consult your professional advisers if you have any questions about a particular investment, its suitability, or are unsure of the laws and regulations applicable to you or your institution.

Investment in any fund ("Fund") managed by Kettle Hill may only be made in accordance with the terms of the relevant offering documents, and subject to the laws and regulations applicable in the jurisdiction of distribution. Please note that not all Funds are available for distribution in all or the same jurisdictions. No information regarding the offering of shares of the Funds is intended for, nor will offers or sales of such shares generally be made to, residents of the United States of America ("U.S."), its territories or possessions. In particular, neither the Funds nor any shares are or will be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, or otherwise in the U.S. and may not, except in a transaction which does not violate U.S. securities laws, be directly or indirectly sold in the U.S. or to any U.S. persons.

To the extent that this website contains any information regarding the past performance of the Funds, such information is not a reliable indicator of future performance and should not be relied upon as a basis for an investment decision. To the extent that this website contains any information regarding simulated past performance, such information is not a reliable indicator of future performance and should not be relied on as the basis for an investment decision.

The value of investments and the income from them can go down as well as up and investors may not get back the amount originally invested and may lose all of their investment. The value of investments in the Funds may be affected by the price of underlying investments. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of overseas investments to rise or fall.

There are significant risks associated with an investment in any of the Funds. Investment in the Funds is intended only for those investors who can accept the risks associated with such an investment (including the risk of a complete loss of investment) and you should ensure that you have fully understood such risks before taking any investment decision.

Investments in the Funds are neither insured nor guaranteed by any investor compensation scheme and are not deposits or obligations of, or guaranteed by, Kettle Hill.

These terms do not represent a complete statement of the risk factors associated with an investment in the Funds. The offering documents for each Fund contain risk warnings which are specific to the relevant Fund. You should consider these risk warnings carefully and take appropriate investment advice before taking any investment decision.
