Brandes, Your Value-Investing Specialist.

Amid constantly changing markets and shifting investor preferences, some principles endure. Brandes Investment Partners believes the value-investing philosophy of Benjamin Graham—centered on buying companies selling at discounts to estimates of their true worth—remains crucial to delivering long-term returns. This singular focus has allowed Brandes to help clients worldwide with their investment needs since the firm’s founding in 1974.

The Brandes Institute

(/institute)

The Brandes Institute, a division of Brandes Investment Partners, strives to challenge assumptions and raise awareness on diverse aspects of investing and portfolio management. Collaborating with progressive thinkers, the Institute provides a forum for investment insights and their practical application.
