

DEVELOPING TIME-TESTED COMMON SENSE INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

ADHERING TO THE CODE OF THE WEST

PEOPLE

The team at Old West is always willing to discuss current holdings and the research process behind them. Just as we focus on investing with management teams who are heavily invested in their own companies, we want investors who expect the same of us.

PROCESS

A focus on people forms the core of Old West's investment process. As a first principle, we believe that the soundest way to protect and grow our capital is by aligning ourselves with management teams who have high stock ownership and smart pay.

STRATEGIES

Old West manages long only and long/short investment strategies based upon the companies that we uncover through our simple yet sound investment process. We are focused on uncovering value opportunities, and we are concentrated in our best ideas.
