“We don't need new rules for Green Investing”

In an interview with the German newspaper Börsen-Zeitung, Andreas Utermann makes the case that an EU action plan has to establish a framework for attractive investment projects, while acknowledging that Green Bond and Social Bond Principles are internationally accepted norms.

Four insights and actions from our Investment Forum

What does it mean to be a long-term investor? That was one of the main questions underpinning the discussions at our Investment Forum in Frankfurt. Topics included the importance of climate change and the future direction of Europe, as our investors and strategists shaped the convictions that inform our long-term investment strategies for clients.

In our mid-year outlook, trade and politics are top challenges

After a strong start to 2019, the markets abruptly turned volatile and the global economy looks increasingly fragmented. While there are no easy answers, we suggest investors focus on ESG, hunt for income and invest actively.
