Delivering our promises

If we say we can do it, we can. If we say we will do it, we will.

Investors' reasons for accessing the private equity secondary market may be financial, or strategic, or regulatory – or some combination of these. Each of Coller's transactions is unique because each seller's situation is unique.

Private Equity liquidity solutions have been Coller Capital's sole focus for more than two decades. The firm has a genuinely global footprint, serving investors from Australia to the Americas, from Scandinavia to Singapore.
