

Creating Value for the Long Term

Since 1987, Kohlberg & Company has been dedicated to investing with integrity to build long term value in middle market companies. We do this by identifying businesses poised for transformation and partnering with superior management teams to support accelerated growth, operational excellence and accretive acquisitions.

