

EDG Partners provides capital, expertise, and relationships to help small and middle market healthcare companies achieve their potential.

EDG's Approach

Our approach at EDG Partners begins with understanding a company's potential, continues by identifying ways to provide strategic support, and culminates in a partnership that enables the company to rapidly grow. Read more »

"I have had the opportunity to work with EDG, in some form or fashion, since early 2004. Over the years, as we have worked through a myriad of items, I have found them to be savvy, clearheaded, ethical, and diligent businessmen. Their ability to address, digest, and opine on issues in a thoughtful and speedy manner facilitates progress, and their desire to "do the right thing" has made for an outstanding working relationship."

- James Messina, former CEO
