

Catalytic investor in software companies at an inflection point

Investment Strategy

We invest our financial and human capital in growth companies to enable them to achieve their full potential, with a focus on software and software-enabled services businesses in the mid-market.

Value Creation Approach

We believe founders and management teams are looking for more than an investor—they are looking for a partner, a catalyst and coach who has “been there and done it.”

