

Crayhill is an Asset-Based Private Credit Manager founded in 2015 and based in New York City.

We draw on our collective experience to create unique solutions for the benefit of our investors and counterparties.

We strive to deliver capital solutions through tailored financing structures, focusing on developed markets. Our asset-based investment strategies draw on our deep sector expertise and relationships throughout the structured finance and specialty finance markets.

Our investment process focuses on fundamental analysis of collateral combined with active structuring, with an emphasis on asset coverage and capital preservation.

We partner with institutional investors, such as pension plans, insurance companies, and foundations, to opportunistically build differentiated investment portfolios backed by diversified pools of assets and cash flows. We are committed to maintaining strong, long-term investor relationships founded on transparency and growth.
