

Creating value through constructive engagement

Teleios Capital acquires ownership positions in European public companies and seeks to maximise their long-term potential by working with management and other shareholders