Locust Point Capital is committed to being a value-added capital partner. Our lending and investing platform provides short-term, non-dilutive capital to owner/operators. As a seniors housing and care industry specialist, we provide market intelligence, insight and input to our borrowers, who rely on us to solve their capital needs. Transparency, certainty of execution, creative structuring and trusted guidance are the cornerstones of our business.

A solid, long-term partner, and a solid, long-term investment.

Many of the same qualities that make us right as a source for capital also make us right as a source for returns for investors.

Locust Point Capital is an asset management firm specializing in direct lending to the lower middle market seniors housing and care industry.
