OUR MISSION

The D&G Barrow/Lane Wealth Management Group is committed to helping our clients plan for their future and pursue their long-term goals. As a close-knit team, we believe that wealth planning is more than just spreadsheets and crunching numbers, but rather a combination of our clients' wants, needs, and desires. To truly gain an understanding of your unique situation, we employ our exclusive process called Wealth By Design. This process is used to develop customized wealth management plans designed to capture a clear picture of the big financial decisions we all face and address them appropriately.
