WHO WE ARE

Argent has deep roots throughout the South—which we trace back to 1930—and a legacy of corporate growth driven by the desire to provide our clients with exceptional service. Today, in our 31 markets located across 12 southern states, Argent employs 300 professionals with responsibility for more than $21 billion in client assets and 2 million mineral acres. We continue to be a company that is privately owned by our staff, clients, and avid supporters, all committed to serving our clients excellently, just as we began.
