Divorce turns lives upside down. The shattering of dreams, the breaking of trust, the loss of hope for the future.

Even worse, it's a time of great confusion.

Is this the right decision? How will I live? How will we divide our assets? What about the children?

Oak Tree Mediation is a neutral zone where you can learn about your options in divorce without the ticking clock of expensive legal fights.

We help couples in conflict by defusing emotions and opening the lines of communication. Through a thoughtful, detailed analysis of your financial picture, we help you work through to a place of possibilities and workable options.

We're a safe, confidential place to discuss your finances, your income and expenses, and your options for the future. We call it "creating a peaceful divide."

And we begin with our unique proprietary process we call ONE LAST LOOK.

IS DIVORCE MEDIATION RIGHT FOR YOU?

It's not therapy. Divorce mediation is not designed to save a marriage—that's the work of skilled therapists. But we often work in tandem with a therapist, who provides support and understanding while we offer information and a plan to move forward.

Opening doors. Divorce mediation opens a door that educates clients to their options, opportunities and potential financial outcomes. So BOTH parties have the critical information they need to start the divorce process.

Understanding the legal aspects. At its core, divorce is a legal dispute over a contract—the marriage contract. This does NOT mean you have to go to court. In fact, most courts prefer couples work out divorce details themselves. Instead of doing it in a courtroom, you're doing it in a relaxed office environment.

Reaching tough decisions. Divorce mediation allows you to reach solutions for ALL the important things that must be decided: child custody, support and finances. YOU have the power of choice at all times to make a deal, or agree in part and litigate the areas you cannot agree on. Litigation is always an option, if it is absolutely needed.

Neutral, private and fair. Divorce mediation is 100% private and confidential. As a neutral third party, we do not represent one person over the other, but we do monitor the balance of power to keep both parties on the same level playing field. Think of us as Switzerland - a neutral country that doesn't take sides.

Children are paramount. Your family isn't breaking, it's changing. We work hard to keep children from being victims of a painful adult-driven process.
