We're focused on what matters most to you

At Roof Eidam & Maycock LLC, we know that the goals and dreams that matter most to you and your family are inextricably tied to your financial well-being and security. Ensuring you have access to the best healthcare, funding for a child's education or the means to live out your retirement dreams all have financial implications that require careful planning.

That's why we view financial planning as life planning—a process that enables you to live the life you envision.
