TIS Story

Founded in 1995, TIS Group takes its name from the company's longest-standing investment research product, "The Institutional Strategist." Today, TIS Group is an independent global macro research service covering global stock markets, multi-asset allocations, hedge funds, monetary policy, geonomics, interest rates, market themes, and currency trends.* Read more here...

Ask a Strategist

At TIS Group, we believe in providing non-consensus, 'out of the box' insights that our clients find difficult to acquire elsewhere. Would you like to ask one of our strategists a question?

Send us an email at askastrategist@tisgroup.net and we will respond to you within 24 business hours.
