Connection Through Simplicity

Empire Asset Management Group strives to keep things simple. Rather than overwhelm you with complex investment strategies and technical jargon, our caring and enthusiastic ensemble of professionals connects with you by developing personalized solutions to your financial objectives using a simple and efficient approach. Market performance can not quantify our value; rather, our clients come to us for guidance on their financial decisions and leave our office confidently knowing they will be “okay.”

We seek to help our clients live the life they want to live, whether they are just building their career or are entering their retirement years. If you aren't sure where to begin with your finances or aren't sure if you are on the right path, contact us today.
