Did you know that you can invest in a socially responsible way? Responsible Investing (RI) encompasses both Socially Responsible Investing (SRI) and Environment, Social & Corporate Governance investing (ESG). While Responsible Investing has been around for a number of years, many believed that it lacked competitive performance. Due to the growing demand for RI, more opportunities are now available. In a recent study by Nuveen (a TIAA Company), investment returns were similar between RI indexes and the broad stock market. If you would like to know more about RI, give us a call today.
