

Providing insurance professionals and financial advisors with solutions for their clients

Our Services

Financial Advisors

Hoping to round out the team approach, our insurance and investment experts can assist financial advisors in areas that may not be in their expertise. As more and more advisors become specialists in their fields, they frequently look to us to provide back office support in the areas outside of the specialty.

Join the growing number of financial advisors that have enhanced their business productivity by relying on us to achieve their goals. With less stress and more balance it is easier for financial advisors to find that much needed time to meet with clients. Our wealth of experience also helps advisors to attract clients.

We can identify product suitability, foster better time management, and ramp up business production for financial advisors. We believe in the bottom line and pride ourselves as results-oriented specialists. Every advisor can benefit from the services that we provide. Let's take the next step together.

Insurance Professionals

The majority of insurance professionals will represent far more products today than they ever have in the past. Loyalty remains to the client and coming to TheBestGA allows you to have access to the best carriers and products in the industry.

the client and coming to TheBestGA allows you to have access to the best carriers and products in the industry.

Non-captive agents have a world of opportunity at their fingertips, but it helps to have a navigator. Learn about the wide array of insurance professionals that have built relationships through our ever expanding network. Insurance professionals can count on our strong industry ties to guide their clients towards what makes the most sense for them.

TheBestGA makes the process of carrier and product selection both efficient and practical. There is no substitute for trust in the insurance industry. We all need the security of knowing that we are doing the right thing. This is something that our team of accomplished agents feels strongly about. We look forward to the forging of new relationships with you by our side.

Human Resources Professionals

HR professionals can count on our experience to support their efforts during healthcare reform. Our independence and access to all major insurance companies gives you the best opportunity for finding the right products to meet your company's needs.

Many HR professionals have already seen healthcare reform as a great way to engage with their senior leaders on a topic where they need guidance. However, without a working knowledge base on legislation and products this can be an opportunity wasted. Fortunately, TheBestGA is here to help.

Our corporate benefits specialists advise HR professionals on healthcare costs, the value healthcare presents to employees, and the best strategy to take as far as choosing products. We can help gain the satisfaction of both employees and management. Use our expertise to make a difference for your company.

Accountants

Accountants are often faced with clients who have questions about financial products they may not be able to answer. We can provide back office support for insurance policy audits, analysis and recommendations. Ask us about the many ideas we have given to accountants that have helped them to grow their practice.

Over the last decade, accountants have begun expanding into other areas of financial planning, including investments. We help to provide the specialized knowledge you need to enhance your firm's reputation. With an entirely new generation of Americans seeking advice on both taxes and finance, the credibility of an accountant has never been more important.

TheBestGA gives you the opportunity to demonstrate greater financial proficiency with less effort and cost involved. It is our goal to help you maintain and build upon the level of client trust that you have already established. All accountants are looking to add to the

Attorneys

Attorneys are often faced with clients who have questions about financial products they may not be able to answer. We can provide back office support for insurance policy audits, analysis and recommendations. Ask us about the many ideas we have given to attorneys that help them to grow their practice.

In recent years, the role that an attorney plays as an advisor has received more attention. We routinely assist lawyers who uncover the need for financial counseling on behalf of their clients. TheBestGA can help you make important recommendations about both investments and estate planning.

We are proud to be a trusted source of knowledge for attorneys and have helped foster the growth of many legal practices. Whether you are faced with fulfilling a financial obligation or merely want a second opinion, our expertise is here to guide you. TheBestGA is the perfect ridge for clients with financial needs. We will cross it with you.
