

We Take Your Business Personally

You need a partner who wants to get to know you and your challenges. Someone who cares deeply about what keeps you up at night and what gets you out of bed in the morning. A champion of your success and finder of the solutions that are right for you, exactly when you need them. At NFP, our expertise is matched only by our personal commitment to your goals. That's how we do business. That's the NFP way.

Coverage Doesn't Always Mean Protection

Stuff happens. And just because you have coverage doesn't mean you're protected. Your company needs meaningful asset protection with intelligently designed policies that go beyond obvious risks. The kind that provides the right amount of coverage at the right price. And that's exactly what our proactive risk management partners offer.

Benefits You Want, Protection You Need

Your business is only as good as your employees. But attracting the top talent out there is tough. Building a competitive benefits program to keep them there, healthy and happy, can be even tougher. Our consultative approach means that your employee and executive benefits programs, retirement plans and HR services solutions will be right for you and the people you count on — and your bottom line.
